

Social and Personal.

Mrs. James Van Alan Bickford will rep-

Mrs. James II. Dooley is spending some time in New York city. She is a guest at the Holland.

Miss May Handy has returned to the

Mrs. H. St. Kent and Mrs. O. A. Bell

Among the delegates to the convention of the U. D. C. will be Mrs. Harry Wise Gooker, president of the Hampton Chapter. Mrs. Booker is well known here as the daughter of Judge Hader P. Lee.

Miss Louise Allen Mayo, who was one the attendants at the Hunt-Kellog westing in Research, will return to the city

Mrs. Austin Brockenborough has as her guest this week Miss Mary Richardson, of St. Louis.

Miss Effen Goss, of Albemarie, is visiting triends in the city.

Mrs. W. J. Heinz, who has been very much indisposed for the past two weeks, is rapidly convalescing.

Mrs. John A. Fleet, of Mathews county, will visit Richmond during this month.

Mrs. William Overton is the guest of brs. Frances Towners, No. 508 cast Franklin street.

in street.

Mr. J. C. Allen, of Poughkeepsle, N. Y., was the guest of Mr. Marmaduke Atkingon last week, en route to his old home in amberst county.

Dr. J. W. Deughtie, of Norfolk, was in the city last week to attend the Caralysi.

J On last Wednesday evening a very ele-gant luncheon was given at the Jefferson. Hotel by Mr. William Stairs in honor of Mrs. De Haren, of New York, who is the guest of Mrs. R. B. Green, on south Chird street. Among those present were birs. De Haren, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wilbur Chef. Miss Lena Green and Mr. Leonard Panne Curson, Sairin Brang, Eliza Clay, Farmie Brang, Lelia McGuire, of Winchester, Va.; Gusele Talcott, of Bon Air, and Imagen Baird, of Essax. The best man will be Mr. Siark Chay, of Savannah, Ga. Miss McGuire is the beautiful daughter of Dr. Hunter McGuire, of this city, and is connected with some of he oldest families in the State. She is closely related to the Stewarts, Peytons, Guys, Ransoms, and other distinguished Virginia families. Personally, she is a thoroughly charming girl, and has won many friends by her gracious manners. It will be remembered that Miss McGuire was universally admired at the Kirmess several winters ago, when she so beautifully impersonated Culumbla.

Cards have been issued to the marriage of Miss Edith Moore to Mr. Thomas R. Keith, on November 18th, at Fairfax C. 11. Miss Moore is the daughter of the late Thomas Moore, and sister of Hon, R. Walton Moore. Mr. Keith is a member the low force of Moore and Keith.

Walton Moore Mr. Keith is a member of the law firm of Moore and Keith.

Mrs. Franklin Rives, of Washington, D. C., will be the guest of Mrs. J. B. Tree, No. los west Grace street, this week.

Miss Myra Kayne, of Manassas, Va., daughter of the late Dr. A. F. Kayne, of Yaughter county, will be the guest of Miss Elizabeth fiterialer Wight, No. 711 west Main street, this week.

Mr. Edgar E. Montague, of Hampton, Na., spent last week in this city.

Miss Thomasine Seward, of Augusta,

Miss Thomasine Seward, of Augusta, Da., is visiting friends in Richmond, She will leave shortly for Petersburg.

Miss Madeline Loram will leave this peak for Petersburg to attend the mar-riage of her cousin, Miss Marion D'Alton, to Mr. I. W. Moon, in that city.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Florence Parker to Mr. Marion Lambert, of St. Louis, Miss runker is one of Richmond's most featurful girls and has been very much admired since making her debut. She is the daughter of the late Tr. W. W. Farker, know death a feature.

Mrs. Ida D'Alton has issued invitations

Mrs. Ida D'Alton has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Marion Eugenia D'Alton, to Mr. Irwin Willia Moca, Wednesday afternon, Newmber the lath, at 5:39 o'clock, at No. 38 bouth Market street, Petersburg Va. Miss D'Alton is one of Petersburg's prettiest girls, and is the daughter of the late Frank D'Alton, who was one of the leading business men of that city up to the time of his death soveral years ago. Miss D'Alton was educated at Notre Dame in Baltimore, where alle has a large humber of friends.

Quite a number of Richmond people will attend the wedding, as both the bride and groom-elect have many relatives in this

Hon. Thomas B. Murchy has removed his family to Westmoreland county. For some years Mr. Murchy has made this city his home. Both he and his family have nade many warm friends, who will regret to see them leave.

Among the marriages of the past week, the of the most interesting to Richmond tools was that of Miss Elizabeth Fontaine Haury, of "Piedmont," Albemarle county,

Art and Artists.

larged from a model made by Bosa Bonheur herself. One side of the pedestal will bear a bronze has relief of "The Horse Fair," and the pairsi on the other side will contain a group of cattle from another of her paintings. At the rear end of the pedestal an apright panel will exhibit the has relief of a stag, and at the front end there will be a bronze medallion portrait of the artist and the inscription.

New York Times-Saturday Review.

Miss April E. Klumpke, the beiress of honor of Miss Martha Lundy. A most delightful evening was spent by the merry crowd of young people present, some of whom were Misses Bessie Seldon, Emma Clark, Edna Davis, Lillie Lorraine, Midired Hill, Rheda Davis, Langhorna Cosby, Virginia Clark and Lilian Edeford, and Masters Charles Larus, Richard Bidgood, Percy Montague, William Reed, Weilford Lorraine, Gay Binford, and James Cottrell.

Miss Anna E. Klumpke, the beiress of

A monumental life of Turner, the great English landscaplet, is being written by Sir Walter Armstrong. It will contain immerous illustrations in photogravure. Sir William Armstrong has recently travelled extensively over the north of England, seeking out the painter's work for reproduction in his volume, and the book promises to be one of the remarkable productions of the year.

Mrs. Charles O'B. Cowardin will have as her guest this week Mrs. William Reed, of Baltimere, a prominent member of the Society and National Secretary of the Colonial Dames of America.

Miss Bessie Ingles, who was one of the attendants at the Hunt-Kellog muptible in Roanoke, is expected home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmind Strudwick, after an absence of several months, have returned and are at their home, "Montrose," on the Hermitage road. Miss Hughes, of Newberns, N. C. is visiting them."

(Continued on Twelfth Page.) | yielding at the ki

Lee Camp will tender a luncheon to the delegates to the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy Friday afternoon at the Soldiers' Home. Among the Richmond ladies who will be present are: Mesdames Norman V. Handolph. Alfred Gray, Nova Leavy, Charles Bolling, Benjamin L. Purcell, E. C. Minor, Virginius Hull, Austin Brockenborough, Kate Winn, Charles Bosher, Dabney Carr, E. D. Hotchliss.

Mrs. Charles O'B. Cowardin will have

Mr. and Mrs. James McGraw announce the engagement of their daughter. Mis-Anna Elizabeth McGraw, to Mr. Luther Libby. The marriage well fall.

Mrs. J. P. Evans will be the guest of aer father, Captain Andrew Pizzini, this

The first literary meeting of the seaso will take place at the Woman's Club o Monday afternoon, at $25 o'clock whe "Two English Writers, Lovers of Freedom," will be discussed by Mrs. Henricolleson and Mrs. T. William Pemberton.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pizzini, Jr., have Another reputed Rembrandt has been discovered in a Raptist church at Amsterdam. It is the portrait of a beautiful youth of about twenty years, and supposed to have been painted about 1972.

Up and Down Stairs.

TYPES OF GOTHAM WOMEN.

BY VAN DER VEER, THE NEW GIBSON.

THE COLLEGE GIRL. SHE HAS A DREAMY EYE AND A SOUL ABOVE FASHION. SHE WEARS THE FIRST THING SHE PICKS UP AND PERSISTS IN TALKING EXPLING AND EMERSON.

Books and Authors.

POEMS. By Mrs. Mattle J. Ceoper, Danville. Va. Waddill Frinting Co.
The author has lived in Danville a number of years and dedicates her little volume of noems to the "City of Danville."
They are, many of them, local in character and will appeal especially to the people of that locality.

SONGS FROM THE PSAITER By Richard Arnold Greene, New York; G. P. Putnam's Sons, Bound in cloth; gilt top; III pages, Price, ELES,
This is a metrical version of some of the best known of the Isalms, Of especial beauty are "The Call to Praise," (57 Psalm) and "The Glorious Gates" (24 Psalm).

The following from "The Praises of the Praise ye the Lord, unto Jehovah sing A gian how song:

Among His saints now let His praises ring
In rapture strong.

Let Israel in his Creator blest
All joyful be!

Let Zion's children in their King take rest

In gladness free.

In gladness free.

His name, let them in joyous dawning praise

And magnify;

With timbrel and with harp let them up-

Tilise
His praises high.

THE AT-ONE-MENT RETWEEN GOD AND MAN, Millential Dawn Series, By Pastor Russell, Allegheny, Pa. Watch
Tower and Tract Society, Paper, 399 naves, Price Se.

pages. Price, 25c. This is a book for Bible students, and is the civilized world, and have been translated into German, French, Swedish, Danlafe, Dutch, and number millions, lie refuses all titles except that of "Pastor," which he considers non-assumptive and diblical—his ministry being to the true Israel of God "scattered abroad."

The book teaches the doctrine of restitution and the millenuium to come.

PHILOSOPHIC NUGGETS. Selections from Carlyle Buskin Amiol and Charles.

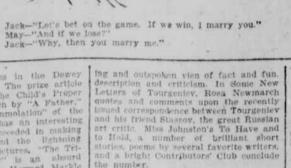

PHILOSOPHIC NUGGETS. Selections from Carlyle, Ruskin, Amiel and Charles Kingsiey. Compiled by Jeanne G. Pennington. Portrait of Carlyle. New York: Fords. Howard & Hulbert. Handy volume. Cloth flexible, cilt top, 40 cents. The little volume must be of genuine worth to lovers of those great writers, and stimulative of interest in others to and stimulative of interest in others to take them up and know more of their helpful thinking. The Carlyle extracts are from his "Sartor Resartus" and "Heroes and Hero Worship:" Ruskin's, the "Crown of Wild Olives," Queen of the Alr" and "The Two Paths;" Kingsley's, the "Hypatis," "Alton Locke." "Yeast" and "Westward Ho!" and Amiel's, from the two volumes of the Journal Intime, it completes, for the present, the announced volumes of the justly favorite "Uzget Series." The portrait of Carlyle that is given is one of the most characteristic, and the attractiveness of paper, print, and binding of the booklet is most Booker T. Washington, whose pro-ominent leadership in the affairs of his race is universally admitted, opens the NOVEMBER ATLANTIC with The Case of the Negro. Apropos of the Philippine troubles, Hugh Clifford, British Resident at Pa-hang, Malay States, contributes a strikgues well for the future.

The opening article in HARPER'S MAG-The opening article in HARPER'S MAG-AZINE for November is a bright sketch of "Boston at the Century End" written by Spivester Baster, and Blustrated from drawings by Clifford Carleton, W. A. Rog-ers, and other artists of note. Lelia Her-bert contributes the third in her series, "The First American; His Homes and His Households," This paper tells of Wash-ington's H2e in Philadelphia and German-town, "Climbing Mount Scrata" is the story of Sir Martin Conway's ascent of that difficult peak. He was prevented from reaching the ulmost summit by upstory of Sir Martin Conway's ascent of that difficult peak. He was provented from reaching the utmost summit by un-usual weather conditions, but went far enough to master the difficulties and to make the history of his climbing a very interesting bit of writing. "India's Threshold" is the title of a delightful article by Julian Ralph, and it is illus-trated by C. D. Weldon. Hon. John Bar-rett, formerly United States Minister to Slam contributes a thoughtful paper on Slam, contributes a thoughtful paper on "America in the Pacine and Far East." Archibald R. Comuboun, an authority on territorial developments in Asia, publishes he first of a series of articles on Russian and Chirese Borderlands. In this num her he writes of the conquest of Siberia. In fiction, there are short stories by Marie C. Sweet, Katharine S Edward S. Townsend continues the "Whilom Van Vorst, Ada Macquoid and Stephen Crane ville Stories," an is concluded. the "Princess Xerita" Their . Silver Wedding and. The Drawer is full of bright things and the illustrations nu-

RESTS FAMILY MAGAZINE returns RESTS FAMILY MAGAZINE returns to its old form, which is much preferable to the large and rather unwelldly form of the past year or two. The opening article is a sketch of that woman of whom all Americans are proud. Helen Gould, it is written by Carolyn Halsted, and illustrated with photographs taken especially for Demotest's. Dr. Anita Newcomb McGee, who is acting assistant surgeon in the United States Army, and surgeon in the United States Army, and who has charge of the work of the army nurses, writes of "Women Nurses in the Regular Army." Following this is a biographical sketch of Dr. Magee. The noted author. Max Pemberton contri-butes the first part of a story, which is in the December nomto be concluded in the December number. Dorothy Leonard writes a timely article entitled, "Acres of Shooting Stara," which of course, refers to the approaching stream of meteors which the earth is about to meet. An attractive feature in the illustrations are the pictures of the "Twelve Most Beautiful Married Women in the World." The "Portrait Alubum" shows pictures of "Distinguished Young Musicians, Who Will Appear in New York This Winter." The usual departments are up-to-date and full of matters of interest to femininity.

The two most important articles in the November CosmoPolitian are olive Schreiner's discussion of the "Woman Question" and the paper of President Hadley, of Yale University, entitled "Modern Education: Does it Educate in the Broadest and Most Liberal Sense of the Term?" Varne Thompson writes of the Paris Exposition, and the Illustrations are of the various buildings. "Ancient and Modern Sectacles" is an illustrated. ber. Dorothy Leonard writes a timely

GOOD BET FOR JACK.

The Hon. Lyman J. Gage, Secretary o weird story called "A Nineteenth tury Pharoah."

The frontispiece of CURRENT LITERATURE for the month is a pharograph of John T Trowbridge, and he is the subject of the sketch in the "American Poets of To-Day" series. Among the special features for this month are noted two compiled articles of interest, viz. "The First Automobile" and "The Trest—Its Benefits and Dangers." The "Editorial Comment" touches upon the McClure-Harper combination as well as upon other topics of public interest. All the departments are replete with interest or ors is told by H. P. Powell Rees, with departments are reports abounding in humor, awkFy agent hkwoad shrdl lodallod!

The latest issue of the SEWANEE QUARTERLY REVIEW contains a number of valuable and scholarly papers. Jrakim Reinhard discusses "The Superior Man in Fiction," G. I., Swiggett contributes an appreciation of Francis Villon, the long-dead French neet, "Petronius, A. Study in Ancient Realism" is a scholarly paper, showing research, by Frank Frost Abbott, B. J. Ramage writes of "Prince Bismarck and German Unity," while W.

Breakfasts," by Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, together with illustrated poems and "Marginalla."

In the November number of the SOUTHERN HOME JOURNAL the announcement is made that the habital of this magazine has been transferred from Jackson, Miss., to Memphis, Tenn.

Hints for the Table.

Here is a dish suitable for a golf luncheon: Eggs a la tarragon. Boll six eggs hard; when cold remove their shells carefaily and cut the eggs in halves lengthwise; remove the yolks and crush them with a wooden masher to fine paste; add to the paste a tablespoonful of butter, a tablespoonful of anchovy sauce, a dessert-spoonful of tarragon vinegar, a teaspoonful of chopped tarragon; season well with sait and paprika. Mix all thoroughly and fill the space in the whites

Miss Evelyn Ashton Fletcher, the originator of the ingenius "Fletcher Music Method." a system for teaching children music, has invaded England through Mrs.
Isabel Wilson, who was so successful in introducing the method in Montreal lasf season. Miss Fletcher has sent to London for the use of teachers who are studying her method under Mrs. Wilson a good supply of "Mother Goose Bongs Without words," by L. E. Orth; a book of 70 easy compositions for the piano, which is being used by so many of the progressive teachers of children. Selections from this book, as well as other compositions by the same composer, were of "Intervals, Chords and Ear-Training," recently lectured before one of Miss Lietcher's normal classes on the subject of ear training.

Fashion,

The Holl. Lyman J. Gage, Secretary of the Treasury, continues in the November FRANK LESTAID'S POPULAR MONTH-LY his admirable review of the "Finances of Our Wars," including the Civil War, and the late Spanish-American conflict. "Among the Boers" is an interesting paper, written by an Englishman upon a timely toole.

nmber contains complete short stories Katharine Traan and Madge Morris, Women in Dramatle Art." by Adeline tandhope-Wheateroft, and "Old Virginia desert-spoonful of tarragon vinegar, at teaspoonful of chopped tarragon; season well with sait and paprika. Mix all thoroughly and fill the space in the whites from which the yolks were removed with the paste; sprinkle a very little finely-chopped capers over the top and place the eggs on the ice till ready to serve.—Commerical Advertiser.

"Fashion," quoth the womanly w an, "demands of a person that she have no heart!"

The other woman sighed wearily.

"Ah, if that were only ali!" she excludined, with bitterness, "Why, some seasons fashion demands that a person have no hips, even!"

And that, forsooth, were a thing not always easily managed.—(Detroit Journal,

He-'I swear by younder stately clms to marry you." She-'Don't do it. They're slippery clms."

Music and Musicians.

Where there is genius, it does not much matter in that manner it appears,—whether in the depths, as in Back, or in the height, as in Morart, or whether slike in depth and height, as in Beethoven.—schumann.

depth and height, as in Beethoven.—
Schumann.

Henry K. Hadley, the brilliant young composer and director of music at St. Patif's School, Garden City, N. Y., has been awarded the prize ($250) for his secular cantain. "Music's Glory," in the "Musical Record" prize competition. His first symphony "Youth and Lafe" was given under Anton Seidi's baton in 1891. Ballet Suite (No. 3) has had four public performances in New York city.

Mr. Hadley's songs are noted for their redinement and beauty. He has also written delightful compositions for the plane, while his choruses with orchestra have been successfully given by a number of American choral societies.

A five months' old song, in its fifth edition, is good evidence of its growth in popularity. This is the record of Riter Fitzgerald's song, "Floating Gently Down The Siream". The melody of the song.

Fitzgerald's song, "Floating Gently Down The Stream." The melody of the song is carried within the most effective range of medium voice. It is easy to sing and replete with melody.

Miss Evelyn Ashton Fletcher, the orirecently lectured before one of Miss Lietcher's normal classes on the subject of ear training.

"Song brings of itself a cheerfulness that makes the heart to joy," says Euripides, while Auerbach holds that "Music washes away from the sout the dust of everyday life." and the great Bach, long ago, criticizes the critic. "How seldom do we meet with a proper amount of sympathy and knowledge, honesty and courage, in a critic—four qualities which he ought to possess.

William Shakespeare, the famous vocal teacher, of London, will come to this country shortly for a visit.

A Konigsberg Alderman named Walter Simon has offered a prize of 100,000 marks for the best opera on a German subject. The judges are well-known experts, and the opera is to be brought out at once at Leipsic. Imagine a New York Alderman doing such a thing.

Leipsic. Imagine a New York Alderman doing such a thing.

Goldmark has thoroughly revised his opera "Merlin," and it will be one of the first revivals of the season at the Vienna Opera. Prague is to be treated to a complete cycle of the operas of the Bohemian composer. Smelan.

plete cycle of the operas of the Bohemian composer, Smetana.

A birthday book of an entirely new kind was announced in London to celebrate theanniversary of Chopin's death. It consists of short musical passages from the compositions of Chopin, selected for each day in the year, and is illustrated with portraits, etc. The authors of this work are Miss Janotha and "John Oliver Hobbes." Several unpublished MSS of Chopin's in the possession of Miss Janotha are used for this collection.

Chopin's in the possession of Miss Janoths are used for this collection.

Hints as to the nature of Paderewski's new opera have been allowed to escape by his managers, Messrs. Gorlitz and Fryer. In an interview with Paderewski about it, the Polish planist and composer is reported as saying that the subject is "lyric, musical in its character throughout, and not especially Polish. There is something of the Siavonic about it, but most of it is, gypsy."

"The scene?"

"No. no: the music. I say it is not especially Polish, but rather gypsy. No national airs, of course," he explained; "only color. And it is generally in the new style of music-drama, so that the principal interest is concentrated in the orchestra. On the other hand, do not forget that it is really musical; the dramatic is not dominant, and I think that those who love the tuneful will not altogether be disappointed.

"There is a builtet in the first act, and, of course, a bailtet must be dansant—wild dances like the caardas. If you have been along the Danube you must remember those passionate dances of the peoplemot the bunube you must remember those passionate dances of the peoplemot the bunube you must remember those passionate dances of the peoplemot the bunube you must remember those passionate dances of the peoplemot the bunube connected with the development of the story.

"The ballet will last more than half an hour. The story is one of the conflict of two races—the Slavonic people and the gypsies. The hero is a gypsy, while the heroine is a Slav."

"I suppose I may say that the story

"I suppose I may say that the story